At Nottingham Ukrainian School, we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of our students and their families. This privacy notice explains how we collect, use, and store your personal information in line with the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.

What data we collect? We collect and store the following types of personal data:

- Student full name, date of birth, and age
- Parent/guardian names, home address, phone number, and email
- Emergency contact details
- Medical conditions or allergies relevant to the student's care
- Language proficiency and educational needs
- Attendance and academic progress (where applicable)

Why we collect this data? We use this information to:

- Manage school admissions and student records
- Ensure the safety and wellbeing of our students
- Communicate with parents and guardians
- Make appropriate teaching plans
- Comply with our safeguarding duties
- Meet legal and regulatory obligations

Lawful basis for processing. We process your personal data under the following lawful bases:

- Consent: Where you have given clear consent (e.g. photos or special educational needs)
- Legal obligation: To comply with health and safety or safeguarding regulations
- Public task: For educational purposes
- Vital interests: In case of emergency medical care

Who we share your data with? We do not share your information with third parties except:

- In case of emergency (with healthcare professionals or emergency services)
- When required by law
- With partner schools or educational bodies for educational records (if applicable)

We never sell your data or use it for marketing purposes.

How long we keep your data: We retain student records for 5 years after the student leaves the school, unless a longer period is required by law or for safeguarding purposes.

Your data rights. You have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data
- Request correction of inaccurate data
- Request deletion of your data (under certain conditions)
- Withdraw consent (where applicable)
- Lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) via www.ico.org.uk
